of Rector of Klaipėda's University

KLAIPĖDA UNIVERSITY INTERNAL DORMITORY RULES

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Klaipėda University Internal Dormitory Rules (hereinafter: Rules) shall establish the procedures of internal dormitory rules of Klaipėda University (hereinafter: KU).
2. The Dormitory Administrator shall be responsible for effective organization of the dormitory activities, the accomodation and relocation of the dormitory residents (hereinafter: Residents), for the order and cleanliness in the dormitory, and for the observation of the Rules.
3. When signing the Accomodation Contract (hereinafter: Contract), each Resident shall confirm their familiarity with the Rules and undertaking to observe them by their signatures. Ignorance of the Rules shall not exempt Residents from liability for non-compliance.
4. The dormitories of Klaipėda University shall accomodate full-time and part-time students, applicants, interns, visiting professors, foreign students, and university guests.

II. ACCOMODATION IN THE DORMITORY

5. A place in the dormitory shall be granted by the order of KU Rector or a person authorised by him.
- 5.1. Before a decision is made, the documents submitted along with the application are taken into account: documents proving orphan status (birth certificate and at least one parent's death certificate) and a declaration of place of residence. The distance between the declared residence and the educational institution determines the applicant's position in the queue if the number of available places is smaller than the number of applicants who submitted documents, and only if the document submission deadline is clearly specified. If no deadline is indicated, no queue is formed, and applications are processed in the order they are received.
- 5.2. Foreign nationals who wish to live in the dormitories of Klaipėda University must submit an application and a valid temporary residence permit in Lithuania. Applications are processed in the order they are received.
6. Resident shall be accomodated in the dormitory by the Dormitory Administrator.
7. Residents are accommodated in the dormitory daily from 08:30 am to 10:00 pm. Contracts are signed on working days from 08:00 am to 12:00 and from 1:00 pm to 4:30 pm.
8. Before settling in, Resident shall: pay deposit and present the dorm administrator receipt for accommodation of the first current month. Submit the Contract, and at arrival confirm their familiarity with the rules by signature:
- 8.1. Foreign students who wish to live in university dormitories, before residing in a university dormitory must pay deposit and the fee for the entire academic semester.
9. Upon prior arrangement with the Dormitory Administrator, Resident shall be allowed to use their own furniture and other assets. KU shall not assume the responsibility for Resident's personal belongings or other other property left in the room or other shared-use areas.
10. In the event of the dormitory reconstruction, major repairs, or re-organization, or seeking to accomodate first-year students in the same area, to use the premises more rationally, to save energy and to improve public utility services, or due to other good reasons, the Dormitory

Services Administrator may transfer Resident from one dormitory room to another either in the same or another building without Resident's consent, after a prior 5 (five) working days written notice. When transferring Residents, efforts are made to provide them with living conditions not inferior to the previous ones.

11. The Dormitory Council may submit proposals or comments on Residents' transfer from one room or one dormitory to another. When making decisions, the Council proposals and comments shall be taken into account.

12. When moving out of the dormitory upon the completion or termination of the studies, Resident shall pay all the fees, vacate the room, and transfer the tidy room, the assets, and the room key to the Dormitory Administrator under the latter's signature. The transfer shall take place 8 am to 12 am and 1 pm to 4 pm on working days, and 8 am to 12 am and 1 pm to 3.45 pm on Friday.

13. Provided Resident fails to move out, they shall be moved out in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the law of the Republic of Lithuania. Residents can be also moved out without providing them with other accommodation in compliance with 19 and 21 of the Rules.

14. Residents can be transferred from one room or one dormitory to another in 7 (seven) working days.
